Council Appoints New GM

Uralla Shire Council is delighted to announce the appointment of Kate Jessep as the new General Manager. Uralla Shire Council Mayor, Councillor Michael Pearce has today announced the appointment after a rigorous and competitive selection process. "I am pleased to welcome Kate to Uralla Shire and we are absolutely delighted to have recruited a leader with Kate's experience to join us at what is a challenging time for our community," Mayor Pearce said.

Mayor Pearce added that Council were highly impressed with her passion for working within local communities and commitment to driving change.

Kate has extensive experience working in multiple levels of government in Australia and the private sector with an exceptional record of leadership at councils in Victoria and South Australia. "I am excited to have been appointed as the General Manager Uralla Shire Council. I'm enthusiastic about working with the Mayor, Councillors and staff to deliver services to the community in the most effective and efficient way possible," she said. Kate added that her "aim as General Manager will be to drive growth and enhance the liveability of the community. This needs to be an ongoing focus as the Shire recovers from the recent challenges of drought, bushfire and also the current pandemic we are all living through."

Kate will commence in the role in early July.

ANZAC Day in Uralla

ANZAC Day Tributes in Uralla will be a little quieter this year due to the COVID-19 restrictions. As most will know, ANZAC Day Memorial Services around the country and indeed around the world have been cancelled or will be very subdued this year in accordance with the Government restrictions. We will not be holding our usual Dawn Service or the March and Main Service this year however there has been an initiative put forward for everyone to show their collective respects to those veterans that have gone before us. The following are ways we can do a little something to remember them. This is how you can commemorate ANZAC Day 2020.

- 1. Record yourself reciting the ode or sharing a message of support for veterans. Respond "Going" to the ANZAC Day 2020 Facebook event. Then use the hashtag #ANZACspirit and share how you'll be commemorating privately, as well as who you'll be remembering this ANZAC Day.
- 2. Light up the dawn. At 6am on ANZAC Day, go to the end of your driveway or stand on your balcony and listen to a brief commemorative service live on ABC Radio. Together – even while apart – we'll remember those who served and sacrificed. You can sign the pledge to light up the dawn at rslanzacspirit.com.au
- 3. Tune into live services and virtual commemorative services. The ABC will be broadcasting a 5.30am service from the Australian War Memorial in Canberra. There will also be a 10am service from the Anzac Memorial in Sydney that will be broadcast on ABC and streamed live.
- 4. Reach out to a mate who might be alone. Many people are alone during this time of isolation. It's an opportunity to invoke the ANZAC value of mateship and check to see how a mate is doing.
- 5. Donate to the ANZAC Appeal online at anzacappeal.com.au. Donations support Australian veterans and their families in need. Donations in New South Wales support services provided by RSL DefenceCare and Veteran Sport Australia.
- 6. Floral tributes to the fallen. Wreaths and flowers may still be laid at the Memorial Gates, Korean Memorial and Vietnam Memorial at Alma Park during the day. Please remember to continue to implement Social Distancing.

With these small gestures we can remember all veterans and what they have and continue to do for this country, even in the face of some daunting months ahead of us. From the Uralla Sub-branch of the RSL, I thank everyone for their continued support of this very important organisation. Lest we forget,

Russ French

QANTASLink to Return

A DELIGHTED Northern Tablelands MP Adam Marshall has today welcomed confirmation that QantasLink will be back in the skies above Armidale from next Friday, after briefly suspending services to Sydney due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Mr Marshall said QantasLink's proposed 'minimum viable network' proposal had been approved by the Commonwealth Government, after Mr Marshall wrote and spoke with Deputy Prime Minister and Transport Minister Michael McCormack last week, requesting his intervention to keep a direct air link for the region to Sydney. He said the new operating model would see Armidale retain two daily return services to Sydney each week, on Tuesday and Friday, beginning next Friday, 24 April. Tamworth and Dubbo will also have a similar service, on alternate days.

"I am absolutely delighted by the news today," Mr Marshall said. "With all the doom and gloom at the moment, this is an important positive boost for our region and ensures that vital direct air link with Sydney will continue. "While the current COVID-19 travel restrictions means hardly anyone is flying at the moment, to have the service is vital for essential travel, such as key medical specialists and other key services, which regularly fly in from Sydney.

"Armidale Regional Airport is the gateway to the Northern Tablelands and northern New England region, so this development is a huge boost for many communities, not just Armidale." Mr Marshall thanked QantasLink and the Deputy Prime Minister for standing by us and supporting the Armidale service. "This air link is vital for our region and on behalf of the community, I thank QantasLink and the Deputy Prime Minister for quickly understanding and acting to restore the service in these difficult times," he said.

"We are very fortunate to be now one of only a handful of regional centres that will still have an air service link to Sydney, with almost all other routes suspended by all airlines."

Not In Their Father's Footsteps

Crudely attached with thin tie-wire they were, to a rectangle of pinboard. Sixteen unusual walking sticks, each a one off, inexpertly but lovingly fashioned from a branch out of the bush.

A label punched out on a typewriter said "Walking Sticks Donated by the Sandilands Family of Roumalla, Uralla".

The walking sticks were certainly eye-catching, but the label more so, because it told nothing of the tragic story.

"This isn't right" I said to the curator of the Armidale Folk Museum, where I'd discovered the sticks, hung on a wall. This is not worthy of the Sandilands' story".

He didn't know what I was talking about. So I told him, finishing with: "These sticks should tell that story at McCrossin's Mill Museum in Uralla". He nodded thoughtfully, brushing tears out of his eyes. Then he helped me carry the pathetic piece of pinboard with the sticks attached out to my car for their journey "home".

An exhibition was designed, something that would properly honour the young Sandilands men, a permanent exhibition.

The text says this:

NOT IN THEIR FATHER'S FOOTSTEPS.

By right these sticks should not be on display in a museum. No, they should have taken pride of place in the home of one of the Sandilands' three sons. On the wall near the fireplace, perhaps. Or in an elegant hallstand near the front door ... for visitors to touch and admire. They should have been a treasured inheritance.

It wasn't to be. Fate decreed differently, cruelly.

The Sandilands' collection of walking sticks tells the saddest of stories. The sticks were collected by James Bruce Sandilands (1883-1951) and his wife Aline (1886-1972). They were donated to Armidale Folk Museum in the 1960s. As a collection they are most unusual. So is the story they are compelled to tell. Now ... and forever.

James, the father, was a good scholar at The Armidale School (TAS) ... and a gifted athlete, winning the 100 yards and 200 yards sprints. In WWI he served in France. His three sons, John, James and Geoff, like their father before them, excelled in their studies at TAS, and on the school's sporting fields. In WWII they too heard the call. The Royal Australian Air Force beckoned. They answered. They went away to war. They never came back.

All three never came back.

To grimly complete the tragedy, the Sandilands' son-in-law Godfrey Rees Jones, in the RAAF, was killed in action over Germany on August 16, 1942.

The three sons? Enlargements of photographs of them smiling, in uniform, are on display.

Sgt. John Douglas Sandilands. Killed in action over Tunis 17/7/1942. Aged 26.

Fl.Lieut James Walter Sandilands DFC. Killed when his "Vengeance" dive bomber crashed during an exercise at Jumchar, India 13/4/1944. Aged 22.

Flying Officer Geoffrey Bruce Hope Sandilands, Killed when his Wellington bomber struck a tree on a night exercise at Ingestra, England 16/10/1944. Aged 21.

Robert Bell was elected to Uralla Shire Council in September 2016 and has served one term as Deputy Mayor. He was previously Director of Engineering for Uralla Shire, lives in town, and has a grazing block at Kentucky. In his regular column, Cr Bell gives a personal view of some of the more important matters concerning Council and ratepayers in recent weeks.

While it was not ideal, interviews for the General Manager's position did proceed via Zoom and telephone hook-ups. Ms Kate Jessep has been appointed to the role, and she will commence duties in early July. The field was very strong. It is now nearly ten months since we had a full time permanent person in this vital role.

The importance of being a General Manager in the Uralla Shire is being highlighted by the continuing failure to engage with Uralla's tradies. Surely one of the most important ways Council can lead the community out of our current crisis is to stimulate local employment.

I am frustrated that the first time Councillors found out details of one of, if not the biggest, proposed revamp of the Central Business District; i.e. plans by Foodworks to redevelop their site, was from a letter of complaint published in Wordsworth. The plans were submitted prior to Christmas, which would have allowed Councillors plenty of time to be briefed.

While I strongly support the surrounding businesses being offered the opportunity to review the proposal, we are now placed on the back foot should we wish to support, with appropriate conditions, this huge vote of confidence in our town. I am also concerned at suggestions that all the relevant documentation will not be provided to Councillors to allow us to come to an informed decision on this application. Foodworks is the biggest retail employer in Uralla shire.

My congratulations to Councillor Crouch, who has used his home isolation to rewrite the Uralla Shire Local Strategic Planning Statement for our next Councillor workshop. His experience in land use planning will be invaluable. We have been assured that the June deadline will be extended, allowing plenty of time for the public consultation to occur. This statement is to have a twenty year focus. One of the new General Manager's stated aims is "to drive growth and enhance the liveability of the community."

Our Level 5 water restrictions look like continuing for some time yet as we await the upgrade of the filters. The attempt over the Easter long weekend to have some of the arsenic contaminated water flushed out by allowing unrestricted (not free) water usage was hampered by more beautiful rain on Good Friday. One would hope that the drinking water alert will be lifted soon.

Two thoughts come to mind as we navigate through the Coronavirus crisis. The first is the innovative ways many shops, food outlets and essential services such as the chemist, veterinary clinic, post office, supermarket, bakeries and cafes have found to keep the public and employees safe, whilst continuing to provide great service. The free advertising in Wordsworth is also to be commended in this digital age.

My second thought is the very real concern that when this is all over, services such as our National Bank branch and regional airlines services may not return, or return but in a significantly reduced form. Many regional newspapers are also under immense pressure to continue with falling advertising revenue.

We need to continue to support the great work being done by the Manager and staff at McMaugh Gardens, as they care for our most vulnerable community residents. Special mention must go to the staff providing Home Care under very challenging conditions. Adam Marshall's regular updates on positive Coronavirus tests across his electorate has been extremely helpful, and a refreshing change from the doom and gloom in the media. In a storm of information, Adam's updates have become the "Fact Check" for our community.

I would like to commend those Meals on Wheels volunteers continuing to provide meals for residents in our shire. I am also aware that the staff from Ascent Home Care have been ringing their clients and volunteers on a regular basis to check on how they are coping in these challenging times.

Bridge St Observer

Conditions have been perfect for camena urallensis (the Uralla fairy), to judge from the number of new dwellings seen recently. I counted six on Bridge Street, and I am told there are others in unexpected places. Should you come across one of their horseshoe-shaped doors, please treat them with the love and respect they deserve.

Lack of traffic may be one factor in the recent rise in the camena population. Standing at the door of the bookshop (46 Bridge Street) counting cars per minute, the average in Easter week was under three. In the preceding week it was close to five, and the week immediately after Easter it crept up briefly to nearly seven.

It is a dreary spectacle, our main street, no weekend buzz, no street stall, barely a shopper to be seen on the footpath. It certainly makes you appreciate the way things were, and will be.

At the Paris end of town Buckingham's Timepiece Repairs (30 Bridge Street) is still open; The Barking Dog Gallery (36 Bridge Street) is open normal hours, Friday to Monday; The Wool Room (38 Bridge Street) is open by appointment, and online, and taking the opportunity for a coat of paint; Properties Uralla (38 Bridge Street, or should that be 40?) and Chaucer Gallery (42 Bridge Street) are open as normal; Thunderbolt Country Kitchen (44 Bridge Street) appears to be closed for the time being; Caffe Gusto (46 Bridge Street) looks closed but is doing takeaway coffee; Burnet's Books (also 46 Bridge Street) is open most days from about 10am; and The Alternate Root (48 Bridge Street) has closed its doors until things improve.

Over the other side of Hill Street, in the CBD, Subway (50 Bridge Street) is trading normally; The Sweet Place (also 50 Bridge Street, being part of the same building that was previously the town library) is on reduced hours, Thursday to Sunday, with free delivery; Regional Australia Bank (which also claims 50 Bridge Street on its website, but should be, I think, 52) has normal hours with social distancing barriers; Moon's Bakery (54 Bridge Street) is open 5.30am to 3pm, with room for only one customer in the shop; both Anna & Co (58 Bridge Street) and Bling n' Things (62 Bridge Street) are trading 10am to 3pm; Renee's Hair Studio (64 Bridge Street, despite claiming 62 online) is open Tuesday and Thursday or by appointment; The Pie Mechanic (66 Bridge Street) is open as usual; Highland Living (68 Bridge Street) is open every day except Wednesday from 10am to 3pm; Uralla Pharmacy (70 Bridge Street) is trading normal hours; Dale's Downtown Meats (76 Bridge Street) is restricted to one customer at a time, no cash, normal hours; Cobwebs Antiques (88 Bridge Street) is closed for the duration; Redco (90 Bridge Street) is open as usual; Michael's Café (98 Bridge Street) is open for takeaways including Indian meals on Friday and Saturday; and TJ's Cellars and Foodworks (100 Bridge Street) are trading as normal. Do you remember these businesses: Meloncauli, Caltex, Thunderbolt Trailer and Produce Centre? Any information gratefully received about any Bridge Street business – name, location, proprietor, year. It would be interesting to have a timeline for each shop, house, service station, etc.

Work, Train & Study

More options to work, train and study online.

Member for New England, Barnaby Joyce, is encouraging residents to take advantage of the new and improved My Skills website which will focus on online training for Australians looking to upskill during the COVID-19 pandemic.

My Skills is the national directory of VET organisations and courses — an Australian Government initiative that helps consumers search and compare VET courses and training providers. Australians will now be able to search the increased online offerings of registered training organisations (RTOs) and vocational education and training (VET) options currently available to continue to train for the future. For those in the New England, Mr Joyce said this will provide an excellent opportunity to study a wide variety of course offerings from a range of training institutions around the country and potentially even something that may not have been available to them before.

“The online space opens the door to VET courses and nationally recognised qualifications not only in our own backyard but right around Australia,” Mr Joyce said. “Whether you’re upskilling or looking to retrain and change careers altogether, VET courses are a great option and highly sought after in rural and regional areas like our own.” “Remaining adaptable and flexible with our employment options during these challenging times is vital to our long-term success.

“The launch of the improved and repurposed My Skills website complements the Coalition Government’s existing Skills Match Tool which provides intuitive career guidance to choose or change careers based on the user’s previous work experience and qualifications. This includes providing information on a career’s likely income, whether the industry is in growth and what future pathways are available. For more information visit: www.myskills.gov.au.

Andrew Murray's Diary

Monday February 6, 1860:

The distance to Dalby was about 15 miles. The road lay through a comparatively level open timbered box forest, no sign of a creek. We pushed on and reached the township on Myall Creek about 3 o'clock. Our horses were not all in the best of condition, especially poor Barbra's pack-horse. As some expected letters from home, we agreed to go up the creek a mile and a half and camp for a time. Went into town many times when the weather was fine. We had some heavy showers and the creek ran a good stream. A(illegible).....came up in the stream and where there were low falls jumped over them. Cameron and I caught some of them. They resembled bream. We also went shooting scrub Wallabies in a belar and brigalow scrub. I shot one that had one or two scrub ticks on it, so we would not use it. Camped here till 17th.

Friday February 17, 1860:

Started on early and reached Jimbour Creek about noon. Camped near the Creek, the only place where there was any timber. Fixed up our tent and got dinner ready and were enjoying it in front of the tent. There was a thundercloud overhead. Suddenly a small streak of chain lightning struck a tree about 40 yards from us cutting a small limb off and rendering the bark to the ground. All our bowie-knives were thrown from us and we got away from the trees. I saw the lightning strike the ground on the open plain and the dust rose as if a large gun had been fired upwards. The cloud soon floated away. A light shower had fallen which made the ground a little sticky. Time passed on: the night was dark. We had a fire burning and were thinking of going to bed when a young man rode up to our camp and said "Good night". He seemed to have had a glass or two. He rode a grey horse. Leaving the camp he went in the direction of our horse bells and we soon heard them galloping. Muldoon's horse, Shawnessy, had a bull-frog bell on and was heard very plainly. Muldoon, McKay and I went after them on foot as fast as we could run in the dark. Muldoon keeping ahead a few yards. When we reached the horses the fellow was taking the bell and hobbles off Shawnessy. Muldoon who was a strong young man struck a blow knocking him down. I got hold of him; he objected, so got a few hard hits. McKay came up. The man's horse had got away and we marched the would-be horse stealer back to our camp. Cameron and Muldoon found his horse and put it into the Jimbour paddock. We kept guard over the man all night, intending to take him into Dalby. The delay to have him tried changed that plan. He said his name was Baxter and that his father owned a pound near Brisbane and his intention was to take the horses to the Bunya Bunya

Mountains, but if we would let him go he would not trouble us again. After considering the matter, we let him go and had no further trouble from him or anyone else the whole trip.

Saturday February 18, 1860:

After getting all ready, we went on our way passing the Jimbour head station where Leichhardt started from on 1st October, 1844 for his overland trip to Port Essington. Got out to Caranga Creek where there was fine water and many ducks. In fixing up our guns to try to get a few of them, Muldoon accidentally let the hammer of his gun slip. The gun went off and although we were all standing around him, providentially no one was injured. The discharge frightened the game away. A very marked change for the worse takes place in the character of the country after passing Caranga Creek, situated about six miles north from Jimbour. Instead of black soil downs, we had a lighter coloured soil which, during periods of heavy rain, would be boggy in places. The Downs gnarled box disappeared; red gum along this creek of fair growth is well represented. The poplar tree is to be found on the further bank with(illegible)....chiefly of brigalow; grass wiry and, in places, seedy. Surface water in droughty periods is scarce. The site of a round well is to be seen near where some buildings of an early period exist. The timbering of the well had been fixed in by circular timber similar to the fellys of a cart wheel. The work had been well done, the upper part being in good repair still although abandoned for 12 or 14 years. Camped on Jingi Creek, also known as Charlie's Creek; it empties into the Condamine."

Uralla CWA Recipe Local Land Services

ANZAC day, 25th April 2020, we are drawn to reflect on many things, and this year, the international threat of COVID-19 unites us to remember, lest we forget, those who serve and the sacrifices they make to protect us all.

Even though our wonderful Aussie way of life frees us from fear of food shortages, we know that currently, some food rationing is the new norm. I reflect on difficulties families faced in keeping "the home fires burning" during the 1914-1918 war years. What comes to mind is the humble ANZAC biscuit made from simple ingredients, baked at home, then posted with love to sons and daughters at the frontline.

For Wordsworth readers, your challenge is to find the ingredients or substitutes then bake ANZAC biscuits. Treacle can be substituted for Golden Syrup; brown sugar for white; quick oats for rolled oats and so on.

Use the CWA recipe below for a tried and true recipe, found in CWA's Jam Drops and Marble Cakes book. Photo of "My Anzac Biscuits" with compliments of Trish Rasmussen.

Send a photo of your baked goodies to CWA Uralla Facebook page, and the winner will be announced in the next Wordsworth. Don't forget to like our page.

Letters to the Editor can be emailed to: urallawordsworth@gmail.com

Dear Editor,

Submission to Uralla Shire Council in relation to DA 85 2019, 100 Bridge St Uralla

Matt Clarkson,
Manager Planning and Regulation,
Uralla Shire Council
27 December 2019

Dear Matt,
Re: DA-85-2019 - 100
Bridge Street Uralla

On behalf of the Uralla Historical Society, Inc. (UHS), we submit the following in response to the above Development Application.

We understand from your letter that submissions may be by way of objection or by way of support only.

Objections:

1. The proposal, by not taking into consideration the location of existing buildings on the adjoining UHS premises, does not allow for access to the rear of the UHS gardens. UHS requires access to this area to be via the existing path which is located between car park locations 34 & 23 in the Proposed Site Plan.

2. The proposal, by not referring to a Heritage Assessment, does not provide a statement of impact on the existing heritage UHS Stables building. UHS requires an assessment to be performed by the Proposer before further work is performed.

3. The proposal does not indicate how existing public access to the Stables building, which includes a shop, is maintained. The main entrances to this building are on the western side.

4. The width of the egress path to Salisbury Street is shown as 6000mm on the Proposed Site Plan. The UHS Chaff Shed houses two restored fire engines, owned by Uralla Fire Brigade which require periodic maintenance off-site. 6000mm is insufficient space for these engines to be driven into and out of the Chaff Shed.

Access needs to be maintained at existing path width in front of the Chaff Shed. In addition, UHS wants to install a replica of the verandah which once graced the front (the "western" side) of the 1878 Stables/Store, to complete the restoration of the whole McCrossin's Precinct. We would like to acquire the small portion of land required for this purpose.

5. Existing UHS rights-of-way must be maintained in order for UHS members to keep access to the UHS Function Centre. Disabled access to the Mill is via the shared driveway, which is used by Mill and Function Centre visitors' vehicles, ranging from private cars, to minibuses, and right up to Tourist Coaches.

6. The proposal does not indicate how the removal of sheds and other buildings on the UHS boundary will impact security of UHS premises, nor does it indicate how access control to the proposed carpark will be effected. UHS requires access control to its premises no less than what there is currently.

7. The proposed delivery access to existing Council parking area must also be accessible by UHS if this access is by means of a lockable gate. The proposal removes the existing gate at the rear of the UHS garden.

8. There is no indication on the Proposed Plan of any vegetation. Trees should be planted throughout the car park to provide shade and to alleviate heat reflection from the bitumen of the car park. Consideration should also be given to covering car parking spaces with solar panel roofs.

9. The driveway on the side of the Stables does not allow for proper drainage and underfloor ventilation because it appears to be less than 1 metre from the wall. The driveway must be relocated further from the Stables wall and doorways, at least to the width of the existing garden and paved area. The drainage and ventilation requirements apply on all three sides which are impacted by the development.

We expect that at least some of our objections will be resolved through discussion and negotiation.

Yours truly,

Louis van Ekert, President, Uralla Historical Society & Phil Irvine, Vice-President Uralla Historical Society

The Panorama Project

Some of the best art captures a definitive moment in history.

With that in mind, Arts North West, the New England North West's regional arts development organisation, has launched a free creative project to record this period in images and self-expression as the world sits out the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Panorama Project will post out small sketchbooks to people across Arts North West's 12-council footprint for people to visually record their thoughts, imagination and lives. The little sketchbooks will be dropped off to central community locations after 1 August 2020, then travel as a collection to libraries across the New England North West for the public to view. Once the travelling exhibition is completed, the sketchbooks will be returned to their creators.

The project is open to all people, of all abilities, aged 16 and above.

Arts North West recognized this time of national self-isolation meant countless creative workshops and opportunities have been cut off, postponed or cancelled. To meet this challenge, the organisation took a scheduled project off the drawing table and reconfigured it as a community project for people to do at home.

"Our catchphrase is 'Connections, Creativity, Communities,'" Arts North West executive director Caroline Downer said.

"One of our many roles is to create places and spaces for networking opportunities. Obviously doing this at the time of COVID-19 restrictions is more challenging, and the connections within our communities are more difficult to sustain."

Ms Downer said the Panorama Project will be an opportunity for regional creatives and artists to participate in an isolation artistic project, creating individual work in the medium they choose, such as collage, writing, photos, drawing, painting or mixed media.

"At the end it will all come together as a whole to document a moment in time and to celebrate the resilience and the optimism of the creatives living in the New England North West," she said.

The project has already been embraced by disability and community support services across the region.

Local councils have also come aboard to promote the project to their residents.

For more information, and to submit your interest in participating, go to <http://www.artsnw.com.au/panorama-project>

or phone the Arts North West office on (02) 6732 4988

Tuck in Takeaway

Facebook : Tuck in Takeaway, Phone : 6778 4368. Delivery is $2, 5 nights a week, Wednesday to Sunday. Please adhere to usual social distancing in the shop.

Foodworks

Foodworks hours are the same. We do home deliveries like we have in the past, customers can ring on 67784502 or email uralla@matadorgroup.com.au.

We prefer if they pay over the phone or we can still take cash. If they can ring before 12noon with their orders, it gives us time to get it ready to deliver. We do charge a delivery fee of $8 for phone or email delivered to your house. We charge $5 if you want us to get an order together for someone else to pick up (as of Monday 6th April). We just ask that for any customers who are self isolating, that they pay over the phone as it makes it easier to just drop the groceries at the door and have no contact. We are taking the health of everyone involved seriously and Sean has gloves and sanitizer with him at all times and we do deliver in plastic bags only.

We have been told a limit of 200 customers in the store at one time which we are well under at this stage. We ask that people please keep their social distance of 1.5 while in the store and to not engage in conversations while doing their shopping we need them in and out as quickly as possible.

U for URALLA, and U for US

A is for Armidale, "The city of", full stop.
Do too many Uralla folk
Go up there to shop?

Its three cathedrals
Are within a stone's throw...
St Mary's, St Peter's,
And the most popular, Centro.

If you want B for Big'
Go elsewhere and you'll C
It's not as C for Charming,
Or as Delightful.(There's our D)

E is for Everybody!
Well, we care about others.
Especially F for Family,
We're all sisters and brothers.

G? Maybe God
Really watches as we sleep,
And G for Graziers'
Best friends,..the bank and the sheep!

H is for "Hi",
Which can help people not worry,
And for Haste, and for Health...
So it's best not to Hurry!

In some places, speakers
Start off with "I", (dearie me!),
We prefer in Uralla
They begin with the term "We".

J is for Johnny/ Jilly -Come- Lately,
Lots of them in Uralla now.
K is for the Kindnesses
That we all try to show.

L? "L for Leather"?
No, slow down the pace.
Fast isn't the reason
We're called the human race.

M is for Mothers,
Loved now and forever,
N? The middle of a quiet eveNing..
(Oh, that was sO clever?!!)

P is for our Pretty Parks,
Our Council blokes should be proud.
Q? Just a Question...
Why do the signs say "Not Allowed"?

R is for highway Robbers.
They no longer abound?
S for the big bronze Statue
That says they're still around!

T is for Thunderbolt Territory,
Everyone classed as friends,
And U is for Us in Uralla,
As this shaggy doggerel nearly ends.

V is the dreaded Virus,
Very worst of all our fears,
And V for the Victory sign,
And three Very Virus-free cheers!

V is for our Values,A nd it's true, I suspect,
The W is for Womenfolk
Whom We treat with respect.

X? that's a bit tricky..
Sounds like what the chooks lay.
And X marks this spot
Where we've all chosen to stay.

Y is the Yearning for home here,
In sickness or in health.
Z? Z-Net. You want more?
Then go write it yourself!!!

K for Kent M for Mayo
