Covid-19 UPDATE from Adam Marshall MP

SUNDAY UPDATE: NO NEW COVID-19 CASES.

For the third consecutive day there have been NO new confirmed coronavirus cases in the Northern Tablelands.

We are also not too far away - fingers crossed - from having our first locals declared 'recovered' from COVID-19. I'll include those numbers, when they occur, as part of future updates.

As I've said the last couple of days, while this is positive news, it's far too early to relax. We need to continue to be vigilant and keep up the amazing effort everyone has been making the last few weeks. Staying at home, unless you have a very good reason for doing so is still essential - as is social distancing and washing our hands regularly.

Thank you all again for the excellent job you've all been doing - we need to keep going to stop the spread!

The current confirmed COVID-19 cases, by local government areas, are:

- ✓ Armidale Regional - 1
- ✓ Glen Innes Severn - 2
- ✓ Gwydir - 0
- ✓ Inverell- 3
- ✓ Moree Plains - 0
- ✓ Uralla - 1

Until tomorrow, please take care and stay safe.

Adam.

If we all do the right thing,
we can slow the spread of COVID-19.
Together, we can keep our community safe.

Please:

- Practice social distancing
- Remember to cough or sneeze into your elbow or a tissue and bin the tissue
- Wash your hands often with soapy water, for at least 20 seconds
- Stay at home unless absolutely necessary

Social distancing laws now apply. Keep 1.5 metres away from others

Stay Well, Stay Home, Spend Locally

Robert Bell was elected to Uralla Shire Council in September 2016 and has served one term as Deputy Mayor. He was previously Director of Engineering for Uralla Shire, lives in town, and has a grazing block at Kentucky. In his regular column, Cr Bell gives a personal view of some of the more important matters concerning Council and ratepayers in recent weeks.

Interviews for the new General Manager were held last Thursday April 2, via a Zoom Conference. While this was not ideal, we do need to get the right, full time person in the role, given it is over nine months since the last full time person left. By the time you read this, we should have chosen the successful candidate.

In regard to the Arsenic problem, we are assured that all will be good in April. Staff are currently upgrading the filters. Instead of the top layer being sand, it will be granulated activated carbon. The water restrictions need to continue as only one of the two filters will be in operation while the inspection and any necessary repairs are undertaken. Initial tests show we are below the 0.01mg/l Australian Drinking Water guidelines at the treatment plant; however the Health Department will need to be convinced the level has also dropped through the town pipe networks.

The explanation on the $1.27 million is that around $1 million is to cover the cost of the bottled water being supplied ($6,000 per day and now over 100 days), and $270,000 is 90% of the estimated upgrade costs.

With the Coronavirus still avoiding Uralla, we do need to recognise that there are cases in Armidale, Inverell and Tamworth. My biggest concern is for the small businesses in Uralla Shire. We must also be aware that depression and domestic violence are on the rise through these difficult times. It was encouraging to see the Federal Government provide large additional support in these areas. One of the positives in a small shire is that you can get your groceries, meat and food home delivered. If you can't get someone to collect water for you, please contact Council and they may be able to arrange some for you. I know that Meals on Wheels are including this in their deliveries, and Ascent Community Care may also be able to help.

It is very unfortunate that the upgrade of the Uralla Visitor Information Centre and the development of the Industrial Land has been further delayed, following the submission of a rescission motion. Both these projects have been on the books for over four years. With the Visitor Information Centre currently closed, it would be an excellent time for this upgrade to proceed. The community was assured at the public meeting held on November 27, 2019 at the Uralla Bowling Club that this project would commence by February 2020.

Council has advertised for 2 x 2 year term Project Managers. Applications close April 8, 2020.

Following a request to extend the garbage collection area, the Acting General Manager has advised that the current business model is being reviewed as per Council's resolution 27.07/19 made in July 2019, and that a draft report has been prepared by a consultant and is being reviewed by staff. Councillors are scheduled to receive the report in the next quarter. This will be nearly 12 months since this Waste Management Consulting brief was prepared. Given that we have had one contract garbage truck hired since our truck rolled over in May 2019, and are still using a hired skip bin to collect at the site, this report cannot come soon enough.

Great news for the Uralla Golf Club, with Adam Marshall announcing grants totalling $250,000 for drought proofing the course and the refurbishment of the toilets as well as installing a disabled toilet. Special thanks to Tom O'Connor who assisted with the grant applications. As of writing this column, the NSW Government has reversed their decision in relation to the closure of all NSW golf clubs and courses. So, grab your golf clubs, get some fresh air, and experience that exhilarating feeling of whacking the heck out of the little white ball! Please remember you can play in groups of 2, as long as you maintain distances adherent to current guidelines.

Hopefully in twelve months' time, we will be celebrating another successful Seasons of New England, Lantern Parade and Rotary Art Show. I am sure all the family and friends' bookings made to stay with Linda and me this year will be fully transferable to 2021!

Bill Stocker

5.8.49 - 16.3.20

Many of you in Uralla may have known Bill. He moved to Uralla 7 years ago and found his true home here. He loved the town, the people, the beautiful New England landscape, the big sky and the opportunities to help others. Bill delivered Meals on Wheels to many residents, volunteered his time at the Computer Bank and taught computer skills on a Friday morning at the Uralla Community Centre. He was always available to assist anyone having a problem with their computer, ipad or printer. He loved a chat, a lemon, lime and bitters at Top Pub around 11.00 each day and to photograph his beloved town and its surroundings. Sadly Bill passed away on Monday 16th March after a battle with lung and liver cancer. Restrictions on gatherings led to Bill being privately cremated, but once restrictions are lifted we hope to get together with all who knew Bill and raise a glass in his memory.

Legendary Burbong Treacle Mine

In days of old, a proposed road trip from Canberra to Bateman's Bay required a lot of planning, and old-timers would highly recommend a visit to Burbong Treacle Mine. "Very well known", they would rejoin. Motorists making their merry way coastwards would keep their weather-eye open between Queanbeyan and Bungendore, but to no avail. Further research revealed there was such an entity, but many years back. It turned out the legend began when Ernie Spendelove was mine host of the riverside Victoria Hotel at Queanbeyan. Story has it that one weary patron realised he had missed the overnight mail train, first stop Burbong. So he called for a taxi. Upon arrival at the Burbong sheep station, where old mate was working, he found he was completely devoid of folding money or coinage. Wondering what to do next, the passenger offered the driver anything he wanted from the station store, because he had a key. "Have you got any molasses?" enquired the driver. "Sumpin like that", was the reply. Soon the taxi was on the road again with the driver admiring his newly acquired two cans of treacle. The next time our rouseabout mate was in town he caught the same taxi back home. Thus, the true story about the famous legendary Burbong Treacle Mine.

Andrew Murray's Diary

Sunday January 29, 1860:

Remained in camp. The temperature is very warm.

Monday January 30, 1860:

As some horses were to be shod, we remained in camp. McKay and I went fishing but did not catch any fish.

Tuesday January 31, 1860:

Started early and camped at Dalrymple (now Allora) Creek. Saw a great number of turkeys but not near enough to shoot any. We shot some pigeons. A shepherd used to buy poor or knocked-up horses and fatten and sell them.

Wednesday February 1, 1860:

Had a good start travelling over plains and intervening belts of overly timbered ridges, the timber being a kind of yellow jacket, gnarled growth, and good firewood. We camped on a well-watered creek called Clifton Creek. Country open plains here and difficult to get wood to cook. I had to bake some part into johnny cakes and remainder into dough boys with sugar. Two emus came in sight on the opposite side of the creek. I got hold of Rainbow, the fastest horse I had, armed with a revolver went in pursuit, hoping to get some oil for our harness and our guns. Directly I went toward them they were off at a fast pace and as the ground was not good for galloping I could not get near enough to shoot either.

Thursday February 2, 1860:

Went on over country much the same, all black soil. Passed a number of carriers driving bullock teams. Passed a fine piece of extra well grassed country at Emu Creek and reached Eton Vale early. Camped on the North side of the station. Grass not so good here; eaten off by sheep which, compared with New England sheep, seemed nearly as big again. McKay shot a rosella parrot with a bullet; the plumage of these birds is a dullish green, the bright colours, red, yellow, and blue of the New England rosella seem altogether wanting on those of the Darling Downs.

Friday February 3, 1860:

Left camp early. McKay shot a fine turkey. We reached Drayton early. Some alterations and repairs to Mr. McCrossin's harness necessitated his staying some time. Drayton is situated on a dry stony ridge; no sign of water near it. The water is carted from a spring some distance away. Donald Cameron and I went on to Gourie(1) Creek. The day was very hot and except a few white cedar bushes there was no shade. The water in the creek was nearly all dried up. Had some dinner packed up and passed the Gourie head station and, near dark, camped at a boggy spring. There was a well but the Glen Gallon water was useless because of the dead possums and native cats in it. We managed to get enough water for the camp by digging it out of the cattle tracks. The remainder of our party came to camp late; some of them had been drinking success to the journey. (2) We went on towards Jondaryan station where at Mirage Creek, an illusion like a lake---ripples in the wind on the edge of the lake. When we reached the creek on the edge of the timber, the water holes were half dried up and hundreds of mussels or shells were sticking in the muddy bank. Passed Jondaryan head station and went on to a long water hole and camped. There was no bread, and the little hitch that should have been fixed up at Uralla cropped up. Mr. McCrossin always attended to boiling the water for and making tea, but some of the other members of the party never did any cooking. They would hobble their horses, put their harness together and wait for the two or three willing hands to do the rest. On this occasion when the bread bag was opened there was no bread. The result was that definite arrangements were agreed to. Mr. McKay was very attentive to writing up his journal and some of the others did nothing. I, also, kept a journal. Needless to state, no further annoyance was experienced, all were willing to take their week to cook.

Sunday February 5, 1860:

Camped as usual on the Sabbath. The day was one of the hottest we had experienced. Nice showers during the night."

(1)Likely reference to Gowrie Creek which rises in the northern suburbs of modern day Toowoomba;

(2) This seems to be the start of the following day, Saturday 4 February, 1860, but not dated by Murray in his diary.

Time on your hands?

New England Brewing Co.

Plenty of time on your hands, but how to put it to good use? By yourself or with others? What to do? How to do it? What can be accomplished? Meetings, of the electronic kind are about the only way to take action. One positive way to start is to develop a 'think tank', where ideas are all bundled together, then gradually prioritized to gain some idea about direction. At this early stage a few acronyms can clear the path ahead. One to consider is AIDA. Attention Interest Desire Action Activities that are of ultimate use to the community could be more than worthwhile. Something that has never been done before could be a task to work onboard. Related to/associated with Uralla Community Garden in mind, Community Composting could well benefit the whole community. The ideal here would be that nothing that is compostable is sent/taken to the tip. Keeping compost in mind, a community orchard could have some appeal. Fruit or nuts growing could well be beneficial to community markets or individuals. A focus on one or two varieties of fruit/nut may well be a focus. One related approach to a think tank, is commonly known as mind mapping. A mind map is a diagram used to visually organise information. It is hierarchical and shows relationships between pieces of the whole. (See graphic)

19 Bridge Street, Uralla, Phone : 02 6778 4781

New England Brewing Co. was established in 2012. The locals asked why Uralla? The simple answer is that there wasn't a local New England Brewery. A brewery with beers that locals and visitors drink on all occasions in all types of venues.

New England Brewing Co. has been affected by the closure of pubs and clubs very directly: its own brewery door has been forced to close as well. Many locals are suffering, including myself.

However, owner Ben Rylands has made it easy for beer lovers to still be supplied with the quality beers that are the hall mark of the brewery.

On the website, there is an online ordering link: <http://www.newenglandbrewing.com.au/beers/buy-online/>

Here, you can order cartons – at a very much reduced price – for collection from the brewery: just select what you need from the Lockdown Brewery collection of classic beers. There is Brown Ale, Hop Cannon IPA, Pale Ale, Pale Lager, Little Ram, Big Holiday (some say we're in for a very big holiday) or cartons of mixed beers. If you can't collect from the brewery, go for the Via Courier beers. For a small surcharge, New England Brewing Co. will arrange delivery anywhere in Australia.

Ben tells me that he is also working on a growler delivery service. This will be a 500ml plastic growler filled with the seasonal beers, the beers that are one-offs with a special twist. The growlers will be available in a fortnight, also from the website.

Cheers!

Louis van Ekert, Uralla Brewhaha

Dear Editor

LARGE COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT IN URALLA'S HERITAGE CONSERVATION AREA

A development application process to expand Foodworks at 100 Bridge Street is underway and may go to Council in the April meeting. If you value Uralla's heritage, it is important that you become familiar with this proposal.

Whilst a Heritage Report must be undertaken for any development in Uralla's Conservation area, the report is not available to the general public as part of the process.

We welcome the continued growth of Uralla's community and its services, but we need to be mindful that much of the commercial growth and investment entering the town over recent years is as a result of the town's preservation of its unique historic landscape. This character has enabled our community of artisans and design-based commerce to flourish which has a knock-on economic impact.

The Foodworks building is on the National Trust Register, as is the bank next door.

Under the proposal, the façade will be maintained, but little else. The old gabled roof will be replaced with a large flat roof visible as you enter the town from three directions. The existing front door will be moved, and a large sign placed prominently on Bridge Street.

In the absence of seeing the Heritage Report, alternate consultants have advised that the size of the extension will impact the streetscape of Bridge Street and Salisbury Street. To our knowledge the plans have been created by a drafting service (from Scone) and resembles a Bunnings. There has been no involvement of a heritage architect. No plans or models for this large development have been made to enable us to properly understand the scale or impact on the neighbours and the street.

Recent developments like the restoration of our bank building (Michaels Café), the Alternate Route Café and the New England Brewery show that careful design can be accommodated with commerce and grows business.

If you, like us, believe that the future of Uralla depends on maintaining its unique character and promoting genuinely sympathetic development or would like to know more, please contact us, Louis Van Ekert or drop by Michael's Café to view the plans and become familiar, and please formally voice your concerns to Council.

Aurelia's Farm B&B

With our B&B temporarily closed I have started to make my homemade banana bread for sale. I cook in my approved commercial kitchen and the recipe is one I developed over 10 years ago - we make it for all of our guests. It has always been very popular and often people leave with an extra loaf. A full loaf weighs around 900g, making 10 good slices. I also make my own toasted muesli which is perfect as a yoghurt topper so a little goes along way. Banana Bread - $20, Toasted Muesli - $6 (130g). If buying both the price is $25. I am also happy to deliver in Uralla and Armidale. Contactless payment options are available, if you are interested please get in touch on 0434 408 163 / info@aureliasfarm.com.au /

Tuck in Takeaway

Facebook : Tuck in Takeaway, Phone : 6778 4368. Delivery is $2, 5 nights a week, Wednesday to Sunday. Please adhere to usual social distancing in the shop.

Foodworks

Foodworks hours are the same. We do home deliveries like we have in the past, customers can ring on 67784502 or email uralla@matadorgroup.com.au.

We prefer if they pay over the phone or we can still take cash. If they can ring before 12noon with their orders, it gives us time to get it ready to deliver. We do charge a delivery fee of $8 for phone or email delivered to your house. We charge $5 if you want us to get an order together for someone else to pick up (as of Monday 6th April). We just ask that for any customers who are self isolating, that they pay over the phone as it makes it easier to just drop the groceries at the door and have no contact. We are taking the health of everyone involved seriously and Sean has gloves and sanitizer with him at all times and we do deliver in plastic bags only.

We have been told a limit of 200 customers in the store at one time which we are well under at this stage. We ask that people please keep their social distance of 1.5 while in the store and to not engage in conversations while doing their shopping we need them in and out as quickly as possible.
